

CURSUS HONORUM
HIERARCHY, PRESTIGE AND AUCTORITAS
IN THE ROMAN REPUBLIC

14-15 MARCH 2024

ORGANISED BY:

Francisco Pina Polo
University of Zaragoza

Salón de Actos
Museo Pablo Gargallo
Plaza San Felipe 3
Zaragoza

IN COLLABORATION WITH:

Universidad
Zaragoza

Zaragoza
AYUNTAMIENTO

MARCH 14 THURSDAY

INAUGURATION: 9.30H

SESSION ONE: 10-11.30H

Federico Santangelo (Newcastle, UK)

The cursus honorum from Biondo to Mommsen

Hans Beck (Münster, Germany)

Cursus honorum before the cursus honorum

SESSION TWO: 12-13.30H

Martin Jehne (Dresden, Germany)

Cursus honorum and competition. Some unsorted reflections on winners, losers, and senatorial status

Marian Helm (Münster, Germany)

Honores to the heroes – the military tribunate and the cursus honorum

SESSION THREE: 16.30-18.00H

Thibaud Lanfranchi (Toulouse, France)

The military tribunate with consular powers: historical problems and its role in the development of the cursus honorum

Francisco Pina Polo (Zaragoza, Spain)

The cursus honorum of consulars in the 4th and 3rd centuries BCE

SESSION FOUR: 18.30-20.00H

Amy Russell (Brown, USA)

The tribunate of the plebs as part of the cursus honorum: norm or aberration?

Robinson Baudry (Nanterre, France)

Refraining from running for office in the last two centuries of the Republic: voluntary refusal, constraints and strategy

MARCH 15 FRIDAY

SESSION FIVE: 10-11.30H

Catherine Steel (Glasgow, UK)

The cursus honorum in the Senate: expectation and reality

Cristina Rosillo-López (Sevilla, Spain)

Young senators in senatorial committees and in consilia

SESSION SIX: 12-13.30H

David Rafferty (Adelaide, Australia)

Legati pro praetore and the rise of an alternative cursus honorum

Alejandro Díaz Fernández (Málaga, Spain)

How did the provincial command impact on the cursus honorum?

SESSION SEVEN: 16.45-19H

Elisabetta Todisco (Bari, Italy)

Praetorship and politics in the late Republic

Julie Bothorel (Paris, France)

Prouinciam neglexit. The consequences of the refusal of a province on the cursus honorum during the Late Roman Republic

Frédéric Hurlet (Nanterre-Paris, France)

Being a consular(is) under Augustus. A career within a career?

CLOSING: 19H